

NEWSLETTER

Water Resources Engineering Department-College of Engineering-Salahaddin University

Symposium on (Renewable Energy and CO<sub>2</sub> Emissions Reduction)

On January 20, 2026, the Water Resources Engineering Department, hosted a symposium on Renewable Energy and CO<sub>2</sub> Emissions Reduction. The event brought together academics, engineers, companies, and students to discuss sustainable energy and carbon reduction strategies. Students also showcased creativity by using recycled materials in the event setup.

Workshop about (Water Resources Management in Kurdistan)

On January 27, 2026, the Water Resources Engineering Department, held a workshop on Water Resources Management in Kurdistan. The session focused on sharing knowledge, exploring practical solutions, and addressing challenges like water scarcity, climate change, and sustainable regional development.

First Stage Exam

The first-year examinations for students in the Water Resources Engineering Department were successfully conducted from January 4 to January 11. The exam period proceeded smoothly and in a well-organized environment.

Starting Spring Semester

The Water Resources Engineering Department is excited to welcome students to the start of the Spring Semester. Wishing our students a rewarding and impactful semester ahead.

Monthly Activity Report

On January 26, 2026, the Water Resources Engineering Department held a productive departmental meeting, where lecturers came together to discuss key initiatives for the semester. As part of the session, a seminar was presented on ranking methodologies and the process for submitting monthly activity reports for lecturers.

Contacts:

Email: water.resources.dept23@gmail.com

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/water-resources-7525252a5/>